Mr. Aleks Kurgvel
1838 Lamont Street N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kurgvel:

It gives me great pleasure to advise you that we have received from your former Office a memorandum commending your performance on that assignment.

The memorandum indicates that your former supervisor considers you to be one of the most competent men in your field of specialty whom he has encountered and that, in his opinion, your devotion to duties there clearly exceeded normal requirements. The memorandum further indicates that on your recent assignment you readily and patiently passed on your past experiences, knowledge, and ideas thus adding to the experiences and capabilities of that staff, and, finally, that you were at all times a willing, cooperative and pleasant worker who required little or no supervision.

I should like to say in closing that I am very happy to welcome you to our staff, and I shall look forward to a very pleasant professional association with you.

Sincerely,

Walter P. Benson
Colonel, AGC
